

Watch For Crazy Day Bargains Next Week

The second annual Crazy Days are coming to this area. For three days, Feb. 24, 25 and 26, stores participating will be given crazy bargains.

Watch for your lucky number in the Feb. 24 issue of the Graphic Newspapers: Tinley Park Times, Oak Forest Times, Orland Park Herald, News Bulletin, New Lenox Press and Frankfort Leader.

Each of these papers will have a number. Take the section of the newspaper in which it appears when you shop in the stores whose ads will appear in the same section of the Feb. 24 issue of any of the above papers, and try to match it with a corresponding number on merchandise in the store.

The article bearing the corresponding number may be purchased for a ridiculously low, crazy price.

SUNK--truck load of gravel ordered by village encountered a soft spot at end of driveway at rear of Wilbur's Midwest Supermarket on Mokena's first street last Friday morning and the left rear wheel was buried. Arrow points to top of tire. The village recently installed a watermain along the south side of the street. The cold spell that followed kept the surface firm but the thaw last week brought the mud up as the top layer of stone went down and so did the truck. The truck, owned by Chester Ebert, had to be practically unloaded before it could be dragged out and then had to be loaded again. On the load are Leroy Stege (upright) and Gilbert Homerding. Watching is Wilbur Teske, store owner. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Form Citizens Committee To Aid Grade Board With Mokena School Program

Thirty Mokena area residents have been invited by the grade school board to form a Lay Citizens Committee to assist the board in an evaluation of the total Mokena education program. This group was chosen to represent the various geographical and other elements in the community to be a representative cross section of our area.

The first meeting of the group was held on Jan. 26 when Lyman Teague was elected as chairman. Vice chairman is Mrs. Robert Lang, and Mrs. George Sangmeister was elected recording secretary. The group plans to meet on the first and third Mondays of each month with sub-committee meetings starting at 7:30 o'clock and the entire committee meeting at 8:00. The group will work independent of the board and the school administrative staff but will call upon these two groups for help when necessary. When subjects have been explored and conclusions reached by the committee, they will be turned over to the school board in the form of recommendations for future action.

The sub-committees held their first meeting Feb. 7. The finance committee is composed of Mrs. Russell Bennett, James Cooper, Ed Dunham, William Hanson and Norman Patterson. The population committee members are Mrs. Jerrold Armstrong, Willy Muehler, Jerry Nelson and James Tilsy. On the education committee are Mrs. John Chisholm, Jay Fagan, Arthur Jackson, Mrs. Louise McGann, Mrs. Melvin Moutrey and Mrs. William Welsch. Those serving on the public relations committee are Mrs. Rudolph Engelhardt, Richard Hedman, Mrs. Robert Mackey and Mrs. Clarence Miller. On the school building committee are Mrs. Kenneth Bressler, William Burkhardt, Larry Istel, Roy Kohl, and Al Kuckenbecker. Consultants are Robert Guether and Walter Shewski.

Speaker at the first meeting of the general committee was Dr. Winston Roesch of Northern Illinois University, who spoke on the organization and working of lay citizen committees. At the second meeting, Dr. Cantlon of Illinois State University at Normal discussed the "Upper Grade Curriculum" with the group. Both of these outstanding speakers furnished important guidance to the group.

Supt. James Ennis, is interested in adding other area residents to the committee. He asks that any interested people contact him at Willowcrest school and he will be happy to include them in the group. Since this study promises to have a long range effect on the school system, and ultimately on the community, it promises to be one of the most vital activities taking place in Mokena in this decade.

Four places are to be filled on the Lincoln-Way high school board of education in the regular school election April 9. Three will be for full three year terms, the fourth place will be to fill an unexpired term of one year. All of the incumbents will be candidates for re-election.

Seeking the three-year terms will be Elias Brown, of Mokena; Wendell Morrison, of Frankfort, and Earl Moss, of New Lenox. Brown and Morrison are completing regular terms; Moss is finishing out the unexpired term of Lorin Schleeter, of Manhattan.

Schleeter resigned last July because he moved his place of residence. He was living in Manhattan town and is still residing there but now he lives in the village but was elected to the board while a resident of the unincorporated area.

Attorney General William Clark issued a ruling to the effect by moving from the area in which he is elected a school board member loses his place on the board if the move changes his status from urban to rural resident or vice versa.

While an opinion or ruling by the attorney general lacks the force of a court ruling a school board must be careful to avoid a condition or position under which its tax levies or bond issues could be attacked, it was pointed out. To be on the safe side Schleeter resigned and Moss was appointed to his place to serve until this April.

In the case of the unexpired term the man who holds the place now, George Preston, of the village of New Lenox, will seek election in April. The term has a year to run. Preston was appointed to the board in December to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of James Brooks, New Lenox, who moved out of the district.

The person elected to this unexpired term must be a New Lenox village resident, the board has been advised by its counsel.

First day for filing nomination petitions is Feb. 23 and the last day is March 19. Petitions may be obtained and filed at the high school office. The office is open Monday thru Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Saturday until noon. Since March 19 falls on a Saturday any petitions filed on that date will have to be deposited at the school office by noon of that date, it was explained.

At the meeting of the high school board last Thursday night the district was reported to be in excellent financial condition. With all bills paid there was a balance of $162,337 on hand. The board has been having funds not needed to meet immediate expenditures invested in short term treasury notes that have been bringing in 4 1/2 % interest.

It is probable that the board will have to sell some tax anticipation warrants in May to meet all its obligations. Last year the board sold $225,000 of such warrants which were paid off out of its first tax returns. It was believed that any amount sold this year would be far less.

The board is now studying the salary schedule with a view of revision. The basic starting salary now is $5,400 and the schedule calls for an increase of $200 a year for the first eight years when it drops to $150 a year.

Board members and administrators feel that something must be done to benefit faculty members who may now have three or four years experience but since their beginning pay was much less than the $5,400 now in force their salaries should be revised upward.

School Officials At National Convention

Several school administrators and board members from the area have been in attendance at the American Association of School Administrators' national convention at Atlantic City the past week.

The convention opened last Saturday, Feb. 12 and closes today, Feb. 17.

School superintendents attending from the area are A. Hunter Chapman, Lincoln-Way high; Louis Bottino, Peotone unit district, which includes Green Garden schools and Kenneth Webster, Arbury Hills.

Kenneth Oetter and Melvin Eisenbrandt, members of the Frankfort grade school board, and William C. Bettenhausen, Green Garden, and Milford Bunte, Will township, representing the Peotone unit district board, are also in attendance.

Last year Supt. James Ennis, of Mokena and Supt. Arnold Tyler, of New Lenox, attended the convention.

The meeting is designed for an exchange of ideas as well as a large exhibit of the latest in equipment and supplies, including books, necessary for the operation of a school or school system.

Brain Injury Fatal To Orland Child, 6

An Orland Park child is dead as a result of a fatal episode in the course of play with other children.

Jimmy Juarez, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Juarez, 9037 Caddy Court, died Monday at St. Francis hospital, Blue Island, apparently as a result from a brain injury.

Jimmy was injured Sunday afternoon, shortly after 2 o'clock, according to the call for help received by the fire department. He was playing outdoors with other children of about the same age. One of the youngsters had a metal fishing rod and accidentally the tip caught Jimmy in the left eyelid. The metal punctured the lid and slid upward into the brain.

The youngster was rushed to St. Francis hospital in the fire department's rescue truck but the child was beyond help. There are three other children in the Juarez family, all younger than Jimmy. Two are boys, Johnny and Joey; the girl is Jackie. Mr. Juarez, who is a member of the Orland volunteer fire department, is employed as a machine operator at the South Chicago Steel Mill. Before moving to Orland Park the family lived in the Roseland area.

3 Charges Against Motorist

A Chicago Heights motorist is facing three charges following his arrest earlier Sunday morning by New Lenox Patrolman Tony Schiner, after a high speed chase in which Joliet security police and District 4 state police also joined.

Arrested was Bobby J. Hatmaker, 31, of 52 E. 19th Place, who is charged with running a stop sign, reckless driving and driving while intoxicated. According to Officer Schiner a test taken at the Will county jail showed an alcohol reading of .23 for Hatmaker.

Schiner reported seeing Hatmaker, traveling east on Haven ave. in New Lenox, flash by the stop sign on U.S. 30 and continue at 60 miles an hour in a 35 mile zone. Schiner radioed for assistance and Will county's sheriff office dispatched a squad of Joliet security police. A trooper from District 4 joined in when the chase got into Cook county.

The report states that Hatmaker passed thru the junction of U.S. 30 and 45 at Frankfort, a 4 - way stop, without slowing and kept on. At times Hatmaker was driving 90 miles an hour, Schiner reported, and forced Amanda, living in a dream world of her own popular youth, wishes that her daughter would have more "gentleman callers." Laura is an abnormally shy child, "as fragile as her glass collection."

Amanda's constant nagging about Laura's failure to have any male callers is Tom's worry. He wants to be as kind to his sister as he can but is not quite sure how to act.

Jim, the gentleman caller, "is the most realistic character in the play." He is the one who finally instills in Laura the hope of a better life in spite of her shyness.

Will County GOP To Endorse Candidates

The Will County Republican Central Committee Thursday evening adopted a proposed set of rules for pre-primary recommendations designed to end divisive primary election campaigns.

Thomas Feehan, chairman of the Central Committee, stated that the purpose behind the program is threefold.

"As Republicans, we desire to have as standard bearers for each office the best candidates available, and we also believe that candidates and party officials ought to discuss qualifications essential for seeking, obtaining, and holding public office," he said.

In addition, said Feehan, it is the feeling of many Republicans that this will mitigate the actionism and bitterness which have been evident after primary campaigns in the past.

The procedure established in the adopted rules requires each candidate to submit a statement of candidacy, which will be discussed with the 36-member executive committee on Feb. 26.

After all the candidates have been heard, this committee will poll its members for a "recommended" or "not recommended" classification. Each member may give a "recommended" classification to more than one candidate for the same office if he so wishes.

All precinct committees will receive a copy of each candidate's statement of candidacy and notification of the Executive Committee's classification. A meeting of the Will County Republican Central Committee, which is composed of all Republican precinct committeemen in the county, will meet in March to hear the candidates and ballot to determine which of them shall be endorsed.

The heart of the rules of procedure as adopted by the Central Committee is the "Code of Ethics and Honor for Republican Candidates." Each candidate desiring to be considered by the committee must pledge that:

-he will not offer himself as a candidate unless he is convinced of his ability and fitness to hold the office to which he aspires,

-he will campaign for nomination and election on the basis of issues and will avoid personal attacks and conduct which would be detrimental and divisive to the Republican Party,

-if defeated, he will support all the nominated candidates and will encourage his followers to do the same.

-if nominated, he will work in harmony with all the other candidates under the direction of the Republican Central Committee,

-if elected in the general election, he will regard the selection of employees in the office to which he is elected as being responsible to the Republican Party for honest, efficient, and expert performance of public duty.

Feehan opened the session at the Woodruff Hotel by posing the question of what affect a program such as this would have on the public's image of the Republican Party. He answered his own question by reading an editorial broadcast by WBBM-TV on Standpoint, Jan. 31.

The editorial began, Feehan said, by congratulating Republicans on the success of their state-wide conference in Springfield which had just adjourned. Standpoint saw as an outcome of the conference the restoration of the two party system in Illinois and that "the same sort of two-party can be established on the county level."

Feehan pointed to this editorial as a sample of the positive response which would result from the adoption of the endorsement

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

WHAT IS A CHECK?

A check is simply a written order directed to a bank to pay a stated sum of money to the person named in the check. If you write and sign a check, you are the "drawer," the bank that is to pay the money is the "drawee," and the person named to receive the money is the "payee." If you sign your name on the back of the check you are the "endorser."

Some checks are almost the same as money, and if one is lost it can be cashed by anyone who finds it. For example, a check payable to "Cash," or endorsed by the person to whom it is made payable, AND NOTHING ELSE, is almost equivalent to cash. It can be passed from person to person without endorsement, and it is comparatively easy for an unauthorized person to cash such a check.

That is why it is wise to draw checks to "Cash" only when you are ready to use them, and to wait until you are prepared to cash checks you receive before you endorse them. For example, if a check is made payable to you and you want to send it by mail to John Jones, write on the back of the check "Pay to John Jones" and then sign your name beneath. By doing this, the check cannot be validly transferred unless Jones' signature is endorsed on the check.

It is always the safest procedure to draw and endorse checks to a named person. If you want to deposit in your bank account a check made payable to you, write "For Deposit Only" above your signature. Having done this, you can safely mail the check to your bank, and the money can be credited only to your account.

Certified checks are often used in business transactions, so that both parties are certain the check is good. When a check is presented for certification, the bank looks at the drawer's account to be sure there are sufficient funds in the account to cover the check. Then, enough money is set aside from the account in a special fund for the payment of that particular check.

The Illinois law of checks is one of many business and financial procedures contained in the Uniform Commercial Code. The Code is a series of modernized laws, enacted in Illinois in 1962, that defines the rights and duties of individuals in the complex business world of today.

("The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under law.)

BUSINESS & FINANCE

BY MAURICE ANGLAND

Increasing concern over a world wheat shortage, especially if the 1966 crop is no larger than that of last year, is being displayed by officials of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, according to reports in the market.

Surveys show planting of winter wheat is down about 20% in Europe from 1965. The reason -- a dry autumn, French acreage is considerably less and with only a fair snow-cover at this time there is always danger that a freeze would be quite harmful. Spring plantings could help restore yields to a certain extent but considering output elsewhere the situation is regarded as somewhat critical.

Weather problems have also beset South American countries. Argentina will harvest a wheat crop of about 5.6 million tons as compared to 10 million last year and it has large commitments with Red China and Brazil. Since home needs are around 2 1/2 million tons and the carryover mostly sold Argentina cannot be an important factor in the world market this year.

The harvest is completed in Australia and the results show the crop down there from 370 million bushels last year to 255 million bushels and of that about 155 million bushels is available for export. Last year that figure was almost twice as large.

Starvation conditions exist in India and Pakistan will have to import what this year. A drastic revision of the Russian agriculture scene is reported getting underway with emphasis changing from industrial growth to food output. The Commies have a big job on their hands and no doubt will remain major importers of grain for the next two years. Grain output in the USSR dropped 21% last year and prospects do not appear bright for a good crop this year.

Because of all this out market attained a reasonably high price level but the advance halted suddenly when CCC made available a large portion of their holdings. It might be, however, that record U.S. exports can be achieved in the current season and privately some theorize that out carryover might be below 600 million bushel, and with equally large clearances next season down to 400 to 500 million bushels or less.

As a result a long range solution is being discussed in Washington, and the 1966 fall acreage might have to increase by as much as 10% and the 1967 wheat allotment might then be quite a bit above this year's 47.8 million - acre contemplated plantings.

Garden Club Show

The language of flowers is known to all, and thru stately Corinthian pillars, flanked on either side with apple-blossom pink geraniums and clipped evergreen hedges Garden Club of Illinois members will interpret the theme "America, the Beautiful" in their own special way. The story will be vividly portrayed when The World Flower and Garden Show opens at McCormick Place, March 19 thru 27 by unusual as well as traditional flower designs.

Artistic design classes will be staged to weave the story of America, the Beautiful in abstract, modern and free form interpretations of such classes as: "For Spacious Skies", "From Sea to Shining Sea" and "Thine Alabaster Cities gleam!"

"One of my very favorite exhibits is the table section", was the comment from Mrs. Chester Evans of La-Grange and president of the state organization. Flower Show chairman, Mrs. George L. Martin, together with Mrs. George Dahlin president of Glencoe Garden Club and show staging chairman, are certain Class X, a gala supper for two after opening night, will be the hit of the table classes. When the table section was dreamed up by Mrs. Barton Cameron of the new Lake Shore Garden Club and her committee, the objective was to interpret the structure of American living.

The national beautification and conservation program is to be pointed up by the special exhibit of Ruth and Russell Lords' woodland path designed and executed by the Palos Park Garden Guild Chapter 1. Other special exhibits will be Garden Therapy, Lincoln Memorial Garden, Anti-Litter and Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.

For those whose love and understanding of flowers and shrubs is told by their "green thumbs", the Horticulture section will display forced branches of trees and shrubs; house plants, both foliage and flowering varieties; cacti collections; orchids and bonsai.

Following the theme of their adult sponsors, junior garden club enthusiasts will portray life in America with seed pictures and seascapes in water filled aquariums. Capsule table setting for dinner depicting "Fellowship" is just one of the junior table classes. Rounding out their exhibits will be horticultural specimens and collections of rocks, shells and insects.

Tuesday, March 22, has been designated as Central Region Day. The Illinois Federation along with the states of Missouri, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin and Minnesota constitute Central Region of National Council of State Garden Clubs. Representatives from these states arrive by the bus-load on this day for a special luncheon in private quarters at McCormick Place. Mrs. Edwin S. Hewitt of Libertyville, immediate past president of the Illinois group is chairman of the event. Mrs. Hewitt is currently serving National Council as Publicity chairman.

State Taxes Hold Attention of LWV

The Palos-Orland League of Women Voters will evaluate state taxes including property, income and sales taxes as sources of revenue during their February unit meetings. Presentation of a background on tax structure will lead to a discussion of the philosophy of an equitable and adequate revenue law.

Revising the constitution to include general or specific revenue articles is one method of changing the tax structure. Another method is to amend the existing Constitution. The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce has provided material explaining the new tax amendment which will be on the ballot next November. The pros and cons as presented by the Chamber of Commerce will be debated for further understanding of this very complex amendment. Mrs. Frank Adamski and her committee, Mrs. Lyle Brandt and Mrs. Adolph De Boer are responsible for the presentation of this revenue discussion.

The evening unit meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Raymond Justice, 8313 W. 126th St., Palos Park at 8 o'clock on Monday, Feb. 21. The day meeting will be on Tuesday, Feb. 22 at 9:30 in the home of Mrs. Glenn Aronson, 12940 S. 82nd Ct., Palos Park. Guests are invited to attend and may obtain further information about the League by calling Mrs. Harry Powell 448-2179.

Repeat Bridal Show Tonight

Because of the large number of reservations the annual Bridal Show presented by Behnke Studio (Lincoln Estates) last night will be repeated tonight, Feb. 17, to accommodate those unable to get in last night.

It is possible that with the repeat performance some additional reservations will be available. One can find out by calling 815-469-5600.

Brief Summary Of Boy Scout Movement

The Boy Scout movement was begun in England in 1907 by Lord Robert Stephenson Smyth Baden-Powell. His experience as a soldier convinced him that the English boys needed more physical training and experience in outdoor life.

In 1910 Boy Scouts of America was founded by Daniel Beard, William D. Boyce and others. In 1930 we carried this program even farther with the beginning of Cub Scouts. Today, we have three programs that embrace all boys from 8 to 18 years of age, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Exploring.

Cub Scouting is a program which gives the whole family, mother, father and son a chance to enjoy things right where they are, "together".

Cub Scouting combines the original ideas of physical training and outdoor experience with religion, patriotism and courtesy, all of which goes to make him a better citizen of these United States of America.

The first rank in Cub Scouting is Bob Cat. To earn this the Cub must learn the Cub Scout sign, salute, motto, promise and the law of the pack. The motto, "do your best", the promise, "I (name) promise to do my best to do my duty to God and my country, to be square and obey the law of the pack"; the law of the pack, "The Cub Scout follows Akela" (any good leader). The Cub Scout helps the Pack go, The Pack helps the Cub Scout grow, The Cub Scout gives goodwill".

Then follows the ranks of Wolf, Bear and Lion. Each of these ranks are earned by the Cub Scout completing 12 achievements for each rank.

Gospodaric To Head Cancer Crusade Of Will County Unit

Frank J. Gospodaric, Joliet Business man, has been named chairman of the 1966 Crusade of the Will county unit of the American Cancer Society to be conducted during April. Announcement of the appointment was made by Louis Valade, unit chairman.

Speaking of the organization of the current crusade which will be held in April, Chairman Gospodaric said, "We will combine the distribution of cancer educational literature with fund raising and will place the emphasis on two words—TELL—ASK. Each person will TELL his neighbor facts about cancer and the life saving work of the Society's cancer control program. He will strengthen his message with pamphlets that give facts about cancer and then will ASK for a contribution to the Crusade. We intend to give every individual an opportunity to learn about cancer, and at the same time, to become a part of the life saving activity of the Society in stamping out this disease."

Mr. Gospodaric, a native of Joliet, is co-lay chairman of the fund drive for St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, a member of the board of directors of Lewis college, and a member of the following Joliet fraternal organizations: the Knights of Columbus, Elks, Eagles, and Moose. He is also active in the Rivals, the Irving A.C., and the Old Timer's Baseball Association. On the board of directors of KSKJ, Mr. Gospodaric is also a member of the advisory board of St. Joseph's hospital.

"We are fortunate in obtaining Mr. Gospodaric's services for our 1966 Crusade", Valade said. "His ability in organization will be invaluable in helping us to achieve our goal".

Board members were presented with reports on education, service and publicity during the past quarter. Highlights of the service report gave the number of cancer dressings distributed (14,087), bed pads distributed (992), and the number of patients served with dressings (36). Fourteen patients used loan closet equipment during the period, including the use of six beds and six wheel chairs. More than 80 calls were made by Public Health Council nurses at a cost to the Will county unit of $211.

The report on education indicated that 24 clubs and organizations took advantage of the educational programs offered through the local unit with more than 900 people present at the showings. Included in the educational report were 12 school programs where more than a thousand school children were given the latest facts on cancer, and several programs given to audiences of student nurses.

Dave Moulthrop, president of Teens Against Cancer, gave a short informative speech on TAC, stressing the TAC emphasis on the correlation between smoking and lung cancer. TAC delegates from high schools throughout the county plan to present these facts at the grade school level as well as high school assemblies.

Following the business meeting, an interpretation of the services offered by the Will county unit was presented by Mrs. Eileen Caron, New Lenox, Miss Idella Dickman, R.N., and Miss Betty Wilhelmi, R.N. Entitled "The Heart Of The Matter", information on two actual cancer cases and a discussion of the services rendered the patients was given by the two nurses. The discussion was moderated by Mrs. Caron, and a question and answer period followed the presentation.

Fourth grade room mothers will serve as hostesses for the evening.

Parents attending the PTA meeting may have their children cared for at the Methodist church from 7:30 to 10. This service is provided by Girl Scout troop #97, under adult supervision.

The PTA is most encouraged in its report of the Saturday morning library hours at the Willowcrest school. The circulation report clearly shows the advantage of having the school library available at this time. The hours are 10 to noon. Volunteers for February are Mrs. Robert Gilmore, Mrs. William Bradley, Jr., Mrs. Robert Mackey, and Mrs. Robert Loftus.

Peter K. Demus, son of Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Demus, 19522 Midland, and a graduate of Lincoln-Way high school, has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll at the Milwaukee School of Engineering for the past fall quarter.

Want to put a few hours of your time to good use by serving those who are less fortunate than you?

Mrs. Hazel Blumenthal, Volunteer Services Supervisor of Tinley Park state hospital announces that more volunteer workers are needed.

An orientation program for those interested in becoming volunteer workers is being held on Wednesday, Feb. 23, at 8 p.m. in the activities building. There is no obligation in attending this program.

Lloyd E. Eberhard, Plainfield township farmer has been elected to replace Howard Harshbarger on the Farm Bureau board of directors. Harshbarger served six years on the board and the past year as president. Other directors re-elected for two-year terms were: Marvin Quigley, Wilmington; Robert Eaton, Elwood; Herman Christiansen, Manhattan, and Ronald Hack, Peotone. Christiansen was vice-president in 1965 and Hack was treasurer.

Officers for this year were to be elected at the organization board meeting this week.

Comw. Ed. Earnings Up Despite Storms

Commonwealth Edison Company earnings were up 8.5 per cent and revenues were up 5.0 per cent in 1965 as compared with the previous year.

J. Harris Ward, chairman, said in the electric company's annual report, that net income rose to $108,947,904 or $2.61 a share of common stock, compared with $100,439,970, or $2.41 a share, in 1964. Operating revenues increased to $593,151,137 in 1965, from $564,903,916 in 1964.

"In view of a cool summer and extraordinarily heavy storm costs, the results achieved are encouraging," Mr. Ward said. "In 1966 we expect the development of our market to lead to continuing sales increases. These should enable us to more than counter-balance rising expenses and lead to an improvement in net income approximating that of 1965."

The company's storm costs in 1965 amounted to approximately $6,700,000, more than five times as much as those of any previous year.

Commonwealth Edison's electricity sales in 1965 totaled 31,637,190,882 kilowatt-hours, exceeding those of the previous year by 8.6 per cent. Sales to ultimate consumers, excluding electricity sold for resale, rose 7.8 per cent.

Revenues grew more slowly than sales, Mr. Ward noted, partly because of the company's pricing structure which gives customers lower unit costs as their use increases and partly because of price reductions.

The report indicated that the average use of residential customers increased 4.5 per cent to 3,865 kilowatt-hours, while average residential revenue per kilowatt-hour declined 1.8 per cent to 2.71 cents.

Commonwealth Edison last year put into effect two reductions in electricity prices amounting to $8,200,000 on an annual basis. Including the 1965 reductions, electricity prices have been reduced over $28,000,000 in the past four years. Additional reductions of $12,000,000 or more, resulting from lower delivered fuel charges, are expected before 1970. Mr. Ward said. As part of a rate reduction last Dec. 15, the company lowered the price of electricity for space heating from 1.25 cents to 1.20 cents per kilowatt-hour.

Tax provisions for 1965 were $154,946,302, equivalent to 26 cents out of each customer revenue dollar. State and local taxes amounted to more than $71,000,000 more than those paid by any other Illinois taxpayer.

Expenditures for new construction in 1965 totaled $145,081,090, an increase of $15,429,665 over 1964.

As recently announced, the company has raised its estimates for new construction and now expects to spend $800,000,000 in the five-year period, 1966 thru 1970.

Area High School Girls Star In Philadelphia Track Meet

Two area high school students, Jo Anne Smart of Tinley Park and Christine Jaskinski of Mokena, made their debut in major national competition before a crowd of 15,000 fans in the Inquirer Charities Track meet Feb. 5, at Philadelphia.

The girls, who had begun performing in local meets last summer, are now members of the powerful Mayor Daley Youth Foundation team in Chicago.

Christine, a 17 year old junior at Lincolnway high school, brought the crowd to its feet by running a brilliant third leg with the Chicago relay team, which also included the trio of Willye White, Norma Harris, and Mamie Rallins, all three of whom have represented the United States on numerous occasions with the National and the Olympic teams.

Taking the baton inches ahead of two powerful runners from New York and Washington D. C., Christine brought a roar from the crowd by stretching the lead to a full eight yards with her smooth, graceful strides. The winning Chicago team received a standing ovation from the overflow crowd which packed the Philadelphia Convention hall to see the international stars compete.

Jo Anne Smart, making her first start on a board track, finished the meet with the seventh best quarter-mile time recorded during the elimination competition. Since the 14-year old freshman at Carl Sandburg is one of the youngest girls in this level of competition, her performance indicates that great things may be expected from her in the coming outdoor season as she adds experience with each start. She appears destined to become one of the nation's outstanding distance runners as she has already placed high in such recent events as the Chicagoland Open meet and the Central A.A.U. Women's Cross Country Championship meet.

Their coaches at the Mayor Daley Youth Foundation are confident that the two girls will play a key part in their bid to capture the outdoor national championship this summer.

Since the girls have projected the southwest suburban area into prominence as a potential source of track and field stars, the Mayor Daley team would like to hear from any girls, 13 years old

Sandburg To Defend Mat Title This Week-End As Host To Sectional Meet

Sandburg high school wrestlers won the district crown at Naperville last weekend with a team total of 96 points and in so doing qualified eight men for the sectional meet to be staged this Friday and Saturday.

Sandburg, defending champions, will be host for the sectional meet but because it has a larger gym, Stagg high, the other school in Dist. 230, will serve as the meet site. Stagg is at 11th st. and Roberts rd., Palos Hills. The program starts at 7 p.m. Friday and on Saturday at 1 and 7 p.m. Student tickets are 50 cents; adults, $1.

Thirty-one schools will compete, including Stagg, Lincoln-Way, Tinley Park, Homewood-Flossmoor, Rich East, Rich Central, Bremen, Lemont, Lockport Central, two Chicago Heights schools, Peotone, Blue Island, Thornton of Harvey, Naperville and four Joliet schools.

In last week's district meet Naperville was second in the team scoring with 72 points and Oswego third with 69. Other schools entered included Lincoln - Way, Stagg, St. Procopius (Lisle), Tinley Park, Plainfield and Oswego.

John Anderson, mat coach at Sandburg, was pleased with showing made by his squad. Wrestlers who finished first or second qualified for the sectional.

Sandburg had four firsts,

Tom Pierson, in the 145 pound class; Harry Warner, in the 165; Roy Zadratz, in the 180 and Karl Pnazeck, the heavyweight.

Placing second were: Bob Schmude, 154; Quentin Wolff, 138; Richard Fitzpatrick, 133 and Larry Bernard, 95. Vincent Beelik placed third in the 120 pound class.

Conference Championship Goes To Eagle Swimmers

Carl Sandburg high school swimmers, coached by John C. Weber, won the Southwest Suburban conference title last week at a meet in Oak Lawn.

The Eagles squad rolled up 109 points, an impressive number indeed when one notes that second-place Homewood - Flossmoor had 70. Oak Lawn scored a total of 45; Bremen, 37 and Reavis 22.

In amassing its total Sandburg captured eight first places, two seconds, five thirds and a fourth. Two of the team set records, Alan Stelter in the 200-yd. medley, and Terry Brazel in the 200-yard free style event.

Tom Johnson won the diving competition with a record 388 point total.

A Sandburg quartet made up of C. J. Mehling, Robert Negro, Tinker Lysen and Bob Daliege took a first in the 200-yd. relay.

Terry Brazel was first in the 200-yd. free style and David Jedlika was fourth. Alan Stelter was first in

Lincoln-Way's Title Hopes Dashed By Homewood Quint

BY TOM SCARTH

The Lincoln-Way Knights chances for repeating as conference champions are practically zero-zero after a bitter defeat at the hands of league leading Homewood-Flossmoor 70 to 62 last Friday night. The Knights bounced back the following night by beating Rich East 68 to 60 but that didn't help for the title.

The Knights jumped to an eight point lead in the game against H-F, but in the closing seconds of the first period the Vikings were able to close the gap with two straight buckets ending the period 18 to 14.

In the second period Steve Niems, who was high scorer in the game with 27 points, led the Vikings offensive maneuvers to accumulate a 22 to 15 point margin and a half time lead of 36 to 33.

The third period was much like the second with Niems and Rich Harbeck sparking the Vikings to third period lead of 50 to 44.

The final stanza clinched the game for Homewood as again they out scored the Knights, 20 to 18. The final Score 70 to 62 giving the Vikings a 9-2 SWS slate.

Mike Seitzinger was high point man for the Knights with 21 and Frank Fleck dropped in 18.

The Rich East game was very slow in getting started and the Knights looked like all thumbs as the Rockets took a 15 to 10 lead in the first period.

The second period was just the opposite as the Knights' Frank Fleck and Mike Seitzinger paced them to a 20 to 15 point comeback to knot things up 30 all at intermission.

The third period proved to be the margin of victory for the Knights when they out scored the Rockets 19 to 11. For in the final stanza both teams turned in 19 points each making it 68 to 60.

Frank Fleck, who certainly earned a spot on the starting five, paced the Knights with 24 points with Mike Seitzinger connecting with 22 points. Bob Defoe lead his team with 21 points.

The Knights held a rebound advantage of 30 to 24 and shot 41% from the field and 72% at the free throw line while Rich shot 40 % from the field and 54% from the line.

This week-end Knights travel to Evergreen Park. The sophomore game begins at 6:30 o'clock and the varsity at 8:00.

New Name And Policy For Bombers

When the Carstens Bombers take to the diamond this year they will be operating under a change in name and policy.

At a recent meeting held in the home of Mrs. Isabel Davidson members present voted unanimously to change the name to the Lincoln Estates Athletic Club and to play it neutral when it comes to party politics.

Tom Vaughn said the club was grateful to the Democrats for their past help but feels it is best to keep clear of political affiliation. The members present felt that more community support and a better community relationship would be derived from eliminating party politics.

A committee made up of Bob Seamon, Clarence Harms, Bud Balsie, and William Frankenberg was named to prepare by-laws and ascertain the steps necessary to obtain a charter.

Vaughn and Frankenberg are to go to Chicago to check prices on uniforms and turn the information over to Ronald Rob. It was voted to purchase jackets for the present members now and buy the players uniforms later.

The profile of Abraham Lincoln is to be the team's insignia.

The Lincoln Estates Athletic Club is planning a dance

liege third.

McNaughton gave Sandburg a third place in the 100-yd. backstroke and Bob Daliege placed third in the 50-yd. free style.

for April 30 at the Veterans Memorial Building, Frankfort.

Officers -- all re-elected from the Bombers -- are: Vaughn, president; Isabel Davidson, secretary and Blanch Harms, treasurer. Clarence Harms, as vice president, is an addition to the staff.

Vaughn re-appointed Seamon as ways and means committee chairman; Ron Rob, uniform chairman, and Frankenberg as head of the publicity committee.

Information about membership or club sponsors' activities may call Tom Vaughn at 469-5530.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"...I believe the drift toward statism-toward strong central government-can be halted is because we are the reason. We who have allowed the drift-have also the power to restrain it by the simple act of accepting the burden of being citizens in a free nation-by ceasing to shrug them off onto the broader shoulder of federal government. They're not national problems which can only be solved on a national level. They're local problems which we ourselves can solve. If we accept these problems, if we assume the burden of solving them locally, we halt the drift toward statism-toward solution by government."

Ralph M. Besse,
President
The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company

"I miss no opportunity to reiterate my opposition to federal aid to education. As a matter of fact, the more I talk about it and the more I think about it, the more serious does that threat become. It is almost stupefying that intelligent people cannot see what may happen if we continue to promote movements in that direction."

Dr. John Howard,
President
Rockford College

Wish I'd SAID THAT

"Wholesale neglect beats the wrong kind of attention."
Marie Phelps, Harrisburg (Oregon) Bulletin.

"Doing business on the cuff is a good way to lose your shirt." Omer Bridgman, The Baylis (Ill.) Guide.

"Charity is a virtue of the heart, and NOT of the hands."
Gordon Cooper, The Lambertville (New Jersey) Record and Voice of Health.

THE CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB SUGGESTS...

DON'T GRIND YOUR STARTER FOR PERIODS EXCEEDING 30 TO 45 SECONDS. MAKE REPEATED ATTEMPTS, BUT ALWAYS ALLOW 30 TO 60 SECOND REST PERIODS FOR BATTERY BETWEEN TRIES.

AFTER CAR STARTS WARM UP THE MOTOR BY LETTING IT IDLE FOR SEVERAL MINUTES. NEVER RACE A COLD MOTOR.

AVOID CONSTANT PUMPING OF ACCELERATOR WHEN THE STARTER IS ENGAGED. IF THE ENGINE IS FLOODED WAIT SEVERAL MINUTES BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO START YOUR CAR AGAIN.

Some Car Expenses Are Tax Deductible

Chicago Motor Club reminds motorists to include certain automobile expenses when itemizing deductions on income tax returns. All motorists may deduct the following items:

--State gasoline taxes (five cents a gallon in Illinois; six cents a gallon in Indiana);

--Casualty losses, not reimbursed by insurance or other means, if not due to willful negligence (but deduction for damage to property used for personal purposes is limited to amount each such loss exceeds $100.00);

--Interest paid on automobile loans;

--Personal property tax; and

--State and city sales taxes on automobiles, parts, accessories and supplies (Illinois state and local tax - 4%; Indiana tax - 2%).

If you use your car for business, you may also deduct the following--in whole or in part, depending upon the extent of business use:

--Motor club dues;

--State automobile license fees;

Municipal vehicle license tax;

--Drivers' license fees;

--Automobile insurance premiums;

Monee Man Gets County Zoning Post

Roy F. Hassert, chairman of the county board, announced Friday that Keith Watson, Route 1, Monee, has been appointed assistant zoning officer to fill the vacancy created by the death of Harris Frahm of Peotone.

Watson's appointment is temporary until it can be confirmed by the County Board at its next meeting, March 9. The salary is $5000 per year and $125 monthly for travel expenses.

Watson, 43, served three years in the Pacific theatre during World War II, and in past years has managed a used car lot and a Redi-Mix plant.

The appointment will speed up the investigation of a large back log of complaints in the zoning department, according to Hassert.

--Depreciation;

--Gasoline, oil, and lubricating expenses;

--Cost of repairs;

--Washing and polishing expense;

--Anti-freeze and other winterizing service;

--Garage rent;

--Parking charges; and

--Toll road fees.

If you use your car partly for pleasure and partly for business, items in the second group listed earlier are deductible only in proportion to the amount of use of the car for business purposes.

A person who operates his own automobile for business purposes may, if he chooses, figure the cost of such operation by taking a standard mileage rate, under certain conditions, instead of maintaining detailed records and itemizing the actual provable costs.

The standard mileage rate is 10¢ per mile for the first 15,000 miles of business driving, and 7¢ per mile for additional business mileage. The standard rate may not be used by operators of for-hire vehicles, fleet operators, or taxpayers using more than one vehicle at a time, or with respect to vehicles on which a method of depreciation other than the "straight-line" method has been used, or on which additional first year depreciation has been taken. Parking fees and toll charges incurred in business driving may be added to the cost figure computed by using the standard mileage rate.

If a taxpayer who otherwise qualifies uses more than one automobile, alternately, he would compute the business mileage on all cars and treat it as having been driven in one car for purposes of this standard deduction.

The Chicago Motor Club points out that costs incurred in driving from home to a regular place of employment and return are not deductible for income tax purposes.

The American Indians, before the coming of the white man, were Stone Age people. Theirs was a hand culture, employing tools of stone, bone, shell and wood. Certain tribes used copper found near Lake Superior and elsewhere, but no Indian had learned to use metals like bronze and iron. Others had learned to weave and made baskets or clothing out of plant materials. Most tribes made pottery: moulding and baking vessels of clay tempered with sand, powdered rock or shell; some crude; some very good. They had learned to farm and had domesticated many useful plants such as corn, beans, squash and tobacco, but they had not discovered the wheel, nor the plow, and the dog was their only domestic animal. Some tribes, like the Sioux of the great plains, were wandering hunters depending upon the buffalo for food and clothing.

In the making of weapons, tools and ornaments, the Indians were remarkably ingenious, skillful and patient. They discovered that brittle stone like flint or chert, which had no "grain" or planes along which it would split, could be cracked with a cobblesome hammer into flat pieces or slivers. Then these could be flaked off into desired shapes, with sharp edges or saw teeth if needed. They discovered that such stone worked better when freshly dug, so they buried what was not immediately used, to keep it "green". From creek beds and lake shores, from rock ledges and caves, or from limestone beds which they quarried -- using cobblesomes as hammers and the antlers of deer or elk as picks -- the Indians obtained chunks of flint. These were fashioned into arrowheads, spearheads, knives, scrapers, chisels and drills, using tools of stone, bone, wood and leather.

Tomahawks, axes, mauls, celts (chisels), gouges for shaping wood, and mortars with pestles for grinding corn, acorns and seeds, were usually made from cobblesomes of granite or similar material having the proper density and toughness. These were roughly shaped by knocking off spalls with a stone hammer. The final shape was obtained by pecking over the entire surface with smaller tools. Finally, the tool marks were ground away with a gritty rock like sandstone, and the surface polished with a softer fine-grained stone.

Pebbles were grooved for weights on fishing nets; or chipped, ground, polished and drilled to serve as ornaments. Smoking pipes were sculptured from stone, or moulded out of clay and baked. Antlers and other bones were used for picks, mallets, scrapers, drills, awls, needles and fishhooks. Shells were used for hoes to scrape wood or hides, to scale fish, and to make beads for ornament. Porcupine quills were used lavishly to ornament ceremonial garments, pipe stems, arm bands and pouches.

Bows, arrow shafts, war clubs and throwing sticks were made of wood; as were their drums. Many implements, and boats or "dug-outs", were made of wood. The graceful canoe had a light framework of wood covered with skins or birch bark. Root and bark fibers were used for baskets, weaving and fish nets, deer sinews were used for thread and lashings. Almost every plant had some use, such as for food, medicine, dye, clothing, shelter, utensil or implement.

The articles they made of wood, bark, leather, and other plant and animal materials, have decayed and disappeared. Only their tools of stone and fragments of pottery -- called "artifacts" -- remain. Nothing brings home the reality of these original Americans more vividly than to find a specimen or a fragment of their handiwork.

'Twas a simpler life, and perhaps a happier one.

hints for homeowners

Every home should be attractive as much of the year as possible. This is why two season plants are so popular. They form interesting plantings in either sun or snow. Dwarf fruit trees however surpass the two season approach to usefulness. They provide flowers during spring, shade during summer; fall fruit color in autumn, and food for eating throughout winter.

However, this food for winter is not automatic. It must be carefully cultivated. The fine finished fruit that is available on today's table is one of the miracles of modern agriculture. Apples and other fruit during colonial days did not receive the special care of today's orchards. As a result it was often wormy, spotted and misshapen. As a result, much of the fruit went into cider production.

For perfect finished fruit, commercial growers spray at least thirteen times a season. While homeowners can seldom spray this often, it does indicate the need for this aspect of care. If, on the other hand, home fruit trees are not sprayed, disease and insects may greatly reduce the size and quality of the yield, although seldom are the trees completely barren.

Sometimes cross pollination is necessary for fruit production.
